PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Have you been wanting a custom-built home that has perfect design touches and details. This new construction home features never seen before tile work, beautiful plumbing fixtures, exceptional use of lighting, fantastic custom cabinets throughout the home with one of a kind master bath vanities, top of the line kitchen cabinets with a picture perfect butlers pantry with wet-bar. The layout is a great blend of traditional and open and the double front porches both offer wonderful views of Homewood looking all the way back to Shades Mountain. 210 Edgeview is both in the middle of all that Edgewood has to offer while being a quiet oasis at the top of a beautiful hill. The alley access across the street makes for a perfect path to get to the shops and restaurants of Edgewood by foot or bike. The Master Suite is separate and private, the upstairs bedrooms are large, and the baths are stunning. The large one-car garage has substantial storage space and high ceilings.
