PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Old world charm, modern amenities, and convenience combine to make this home the perfect expression of what a home can be. Customized at the time of construction, this home has features not seen in others in the neighborhood. From the extra living space on the main level, to the elevator from basement to second floor, attention to detail is seen throughout. Positioned near the neighborhood fountain, the lot is afforded more space than most. Designed for the joy of living inside as well as out, you'll find the side yard patio and the screened porch to be your new favorite places. Need to entertain? There is plenty of room for that. If you need storage, it abounds here. Workshop that doubles as storm shelter? Big garage? They are here! Make no mistake, this house is move in ready and has everything you need. The photos speak for themselves.
