PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Simply stunning. From the meticulous landscaping to the impeccably kept interior, you'll be thrilled and delighted by the exquisite care that has been given this house in its short life. In addition to the primary bedroom suite, there is another main level bedroom and bath suite on the first floor. Upstairs holds two more bedroom suites with some very impressive closets fit for Imelda Marcos and her shoe collection, as well as a library area and den overlooking the great room. Don't miss the amazing architectural features throughout. From the large cove moldings to the cathedral ceiling in the great room, prepare to be wowed at every turn. The screened porch and the stunning back yard will take your outdoor living to the next level. Don't miss the pantry with second refrigerator just off the kitchen. No running to the garage for that extra fridge! Take note of all the windows and how the entire house is bathed in light. Simply stunning in every way is the only way to describe.
